

2nd May

Inspicio plc

Completion of Acquisition

Inspicio plc, the UK and international inspection and testing business announces that, following the satisfaction of certain conditions and the payment of £16 million to Mowlem plc (now owned by Carillion PLC), the acquisition of Environmental Services Group Limited has now been successfully completed.

Mark Silver, Chief Executive of Inspicio plc said:

"This earnings enhancing acquisition not only enjoys an excellent strategic fit with Inspectorate in respect of both geography and people, but it also offers multiple cross-selling opportunities through our global network. We look forward to working with the Environmental Services Group with a view to further enhancing our position as a market leader in the provision of inspection and testing services."